$454,064 County's Share Under Aid For School Plan

Ulster County would receive a total of $454,064 through allocations under the compromise plan agreed to by Governor Rockefeller and legislative leaders today for aid to education, according to The Associated Press.

The measure is expected to be voted by the Legislature today.

The totals of new money, by counties, is the first sum, the second sum comprises estimates of the amounts that will go to districts electing to receive the funds on a rapid-growth, high-tax basis, and the third sum listed comprised estimates of amounts for districts that select the $8-per-pupil plan:

Ulster County — $454,064, $436,695, $17,369.
Columbia — $73,663, $35,243, $38,420.
Delaware — $82,215, $35,127, $47,088.

Jones' selection was the unanimous choice of the committee, according to Thomas Hughes, chairman.

"Addison Jones was selected for his untiring efforts to promote the welfare of our community and for his interest in our youth and sports. His good sportsmanship and his entire mode of life is a shining example to not only the youth of our community, but all its citizens," Hughes said.

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The state's legislative leaders plan a $7,500 pay raise for themselves, to a total of $29,000 annually for the Republican majority chiefs and $28,000 for the Democratic minority leaders.

Final Meeting Of Nonpartisan Group Is Monday

The fourth and final meeting of the Nonpartisan Nominating Committee in its quest for prospective candidates for Kingston Board of Education (Consolidated) will be held 7:30 p. m. Monday at George Washington School.

This is the last meeting at which residents of the school district who would like to present their candidates to the committee will be able to do so.

Rocket Propelled Deep in Probe of Magnetic Fields

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A Thor-Delta rocket knifed skyward today in an attempt to propel a payload deep into space to study mysterious magnetic fields and the intensity of solar winds.

The launch was designed to hurl a 78-pound satellite into a highly elliptical orbit ranging from 94 miles to more than 120,000 miles above the earth. Its finding could help map the safest route for man to follow on his future journeys into space.

52 Inches High
The satellite itself looked much like an old-fashioned potato masher, with a sphere-topped rod extending from a cylinder base. It is 52 inches high.

Because of the extreme cigar-shaped orbit sought, the satellite was to make one sweep around the globe in 11 1/2 hours—more than 4 1/2 days—compared to the normal satellite circuit of two hours or less.

Senate Kills Hunter Ski Measure, Only 7 in Favor

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A proposed constitutional amendment that would have cleared the way for a private company to expand its ski center in the Catskill Forest Preserve has been killed by the Senate.

The legislation was returned to committee Friday after only 7 of 37 senators voted for it.

The plan was to allow the Hunter Mountain Development Corp. to lease part of Hunter Mountain for construction of approximately 20 miles of ski trails, 200 feet wide, from the top of the mountain.

The company, which owns land at the base, also would have been permitted to build a restaurant and a gondola-lift to the peak.

Passed by Assembly
An amendment to use Forest Preserve lands would have been required because the State Constitution mandates that such lands

Albany Approval Is Due On School Aid, Budget

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A supplemental budget to add $33 million to Gov. Rockefeller's $2.4 billion main budget gained final legislative approval today.

The Senate passed the budget unanimously, without debate. It now goes to Rockefeller.

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The 1961 Legislature meets today to pass a $29.1 million compromise school-aid plan, approve a $33-million supplemental budget, raise its own pay and adjourn for the year.

The compromise plan for state aid to elementary and secondary schools, which evolved from a battle between GOP legislative leaders, provides districts an option on how they want to receive the added money.

Two Choices
The choice is between payments of $8 per pupil or payments under formulas for state aid to fast-growing districts.

Republican majorities of both houses approved the plan in party conferences Friday and it was assured of passage in the closing hours of the session.

Arguments over school aid between Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney and Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlini led to an impasse that, along with other issues, caused a delay in adjournment. The raises range to $7,500. The measure is before Gov. Rockefeller, who plans to sign it.

Report 4 Mishaps, Burglary Arrests

Three young men were hospitalized early this morning following area highway mishaps, another man enjoyed a miraculous escape after his car flipped over four times, coming to rest on its roof, and four teen-age Pine Bush youths were arrested on charges of burglary third degree following an investigation by Ellenville and Montgomery state police.

In fair condition today at Kingston Hospital were Joseph W. Thomas, 19, of 271 Hasbrouck Avenue and Thomas Wyman, 20, of 106 Downs Street.

In Fair Condition
Also reported in fair condition at St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, is Frank Talmadge, 20, of RD1, New Paltz.

All three were injured in two one-car accidents in the early morning hours.

Thomas was proceeding in an easterly direction on the Sawkill road, with Wyman as a passenger, when he was reportedly blinded by the headlights of an oncoming vehicle, left the road on the northerly side and smashed into a tree.

The 1953 sedan was described as a total loss by Deputy Sheriff Jack Seaholm and Charles McCullough of the Ulster County Sheriff's office. A V-shaped indentation was smashed into the front of the vehicle.

Thomas received possible rib fractures and lacerations of the right eye.

Wyman suffered lacerations and a possible fracture of the lower back.

Time of the mishap was listed by investigating officers as 2:56 a. m. The injured men were taken to the hospital by Fatum's Ambulance.

Nehru Is To Exert Influence

Red Radio Admits Laotian Situation Gets Worse Daily

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Foreign ministers of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) rushed here today for a crisis conference on Laos.

Ready for them is a defense blueprint, drawn up by SEATO military experts, who favor the hard U.S. line and want the alliance's fighting power strengthened.

Western military movements in the area were being kept secret, reportedly on orders of Washington. Sources in Manila said the U.S. aircraft carrier Bennington had sailed from the Subic Bay naval base into the South China Sea toward Laos several days ago, presumably with escort vessels.

Soviets Remain Silent

Radio Moscow today agreed that the situation grows more serious daily in the jungle kingdom of Laos — a crossroads of the Communist and non-Communist worlds in Asia. But the Soviets remained silent on Western peace proposals put forward by the British.

London's proposal is that Britain and the Soviet Union, as co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference on Indochina, ask the warring factions in Laos to cease hostilities and revive the control commission of India, Poland and Canada. An international peace conference would then be called.

Prime Minister Nehru of India, asked by President Kennedy to use his prestige and influence with Moscow to achieve a Laotian cease fire, sent word to the President that he will do all he can. Official sources in New Delhi said Nehru wants the Soviets to make (Continued on Page 5, Col. 6)

House Coalition Trims President's $1.25 Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — A conservative coalition in the House has applied the brakes to President Kennedy's economic program by rejecting the minimum wage legislation he requested.

A compromise measure endorsed by the President lost by an eyelash, 186-185, Friday and the House then passed a Republican-backed bill drawn on a much narrower scale.

The bill, introduced by Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio, raises the minimum wage from $1 an hour to $1.15 for the 24 million employees now covered and brings in 1.4 million who were formerly uncovered. The bill now goes to the Senate.

The administration-backed bill would have increased the wage to $1.25 in two steps and brought in 3.8 million more workers.

The defeat of the compromise bill was also a bitter blow to the House leadership. It threw its full weight behind the bill but was unable to crack the better disciplined ranks of the Republican-Southern Democratic coalition.

Fewer than a half dozen Republicans deserted the coalition on the key 186-185 vote, while at least 40 Southern Democrats joined with the Republican majority.

It was a non-record vote, the members merely standing to be counted.

With the administration bill disposed of, 48 members who had failed to appear for the standing vote showed up for a formal roll call on the coalition substitute, which was approved 216-203. On that vote, 26 Republicans voted against the coalition.

Final passage of the bill, a mere formality after all alternatives had been disposed of, was by a 340-78 roll call vote.

It was the second time the House has thwarted Kennedy on a minimum wage bill. Last year the senator sponsored much the same measure as the administration proposed this year and steered it to 62-34 victory in the Senate.

The House, however, followed the same pattern it did Friday and adopted a scaled-down, coalition substitute. Neither side would agree to a compromise and the bill died.

Your Life And Mine

By CLYDE PERLERT SNELL
IMMORTAL TIMBER

Have you ever wondered who chose the tree that became the cross? No doubt it was selected by some man going through the perfunctory motions of performing his daily task. His was the responsibility of having the crosses ready for the public executions. His highest aspiration was to find a tree—any old kind of tree—that would serve the purpose. So he wandered out into the thicket and cut down the first tree he saw that would, in his estimation, be sturdy enough for the afternoon's bloody business. With what a careless hand he must have hacked it down. And with what an irresponsible unconcern he must have tacked the cross beam in its place. "Anything is good enough for this ignominious business of holding a man upright until the blood leaks out," he must have said to himself as he prepared for the afternoon's routine executions.

Little did that man know as he hacked away on that gnarly tree that day or nailed the crossbeams on with careless strokes, that this would be timber the world would never forget. Little did he think he was, that day, fashioning a symbol that would greet the eyes of worshippers as long as the world would last. It never occurred to him that the world always would remember the day upon which his carelessly chosen and crudely shaped timbers were raised to "let the blood" of what was, to him, just one more criminal. That man who cut the tree little surmised that one day men would sing:

"Oh, the old rugged cross, so despised by the world, Has a wondrous attraction for me."

That timber has become immortal. Not that we have the actual wood; for, probably, they tossed the cross away as bloody refuse or prepared it to be a cruel death to the next criminal on the list. But we have more than the actual wood, for this timber has become the spirit's lumber that lifts our hearts to God. Actual wood would indeed be a paltry substitute for the cross the spirit knows.

That which has happened to this timber has been stranger than fiction. For that instrument of torture was turned out to be a symbol of the eternal nature of truth. As Donald H. Tippet has said: "You may nail it to the tree, wrap it in grave clothes, and seal it in a tomb; but 'truth crushed to earth shall rise again.' Truth does not perish; it cannot be destroyed. It may be distorted; it has been silenced temporarily; it has been compelled to carry its cross to Calvary's brow or to drink the cup of poisoned hemlock in a Grecian jail, but with an inevitable certainty after every Black Friday dawn's truth's Easter morn."

If that man who chose the cross so perfunctorily only could have known how immortal that timber would become! Perchance he does.

Ashokan Church Lists Activities

Several members and friends of the Ashokan Methodist Church attended the second charge-wide Sunday evening program planned by the committee on missions at the Glenford Church Hall, last week, which began with a covered-dish supper at 5:30 p. m. The program featured Dr. Clara Nutting, a public health missionary, who presented colored slides of her work in foreign missions. Dr. Nutting served in Northern China from pre-World War 2 days until the Communist invasion of China in the late '40's. She then served in the same capacity in Southern Rhodesia until retired by the Board of Missions in 1958. She continued in the same work for another year with a Southern Rhodesian milk company, and finally retired to begin lecture tours here.

Ashokan Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Circle 2 met at the home of Mrs. Alva Bukey Jr., recently. Following a short devotional program given by Mrs. Charles Birmingham, members worked on projects for the annual fair to be held Saturday, July 8, on the church grounds. Those attending were the Mmes. John Thayer, Charles Birmingham, Charles Lester, Frank Carle, Donald DeBois, Ernest Eode, Gary Sorenson, and Alva Bukey Jr. The regular monthly meeting of Circle 1 was held Thursday, at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Seymour Winnie.

Samaritans Sect Making Comeback

By BRUCE CONDE
NABLUS, Jordan (AP) — The Good Samaritan's race is making a comeback.

A new survey made in this Jordanian city north of Jerusalem shows that from an all-time low of around 160 the community is now up to 345, with every prospect of growing more.

They have been considered a dissident Hebrew sect by the Jews since Old Testament times. Christian interest in the Samaritans stems from the fact that they form the subject of Christ's first parable.

High Priest Amram Isaac, a patriarch figure in dark robes and flaming red turban, attributes the reversal of their decline to two factors: The ending of centuries of persecution, and, new blood through conversions of outsiders marrying into the community.

Oldest Surviving Sect

The high priest's office goes back to the days of Moses. But he shows with pride the newly-built white limestone temple, and comfortable houses in the Samaritan quarter of Nablus as evidence of his people's new status as respected citizens of Jordan.

The world's oldest surviving Judaic sect also boasts a modern school, half supported by the Samaritans, half by the Jordanian government.

Amram will also display the Samaritans' most precious relic: The "Abisha" Scroll of the first five books of the Bible—said to be the world's oldest known copy of the Pentateuch. Although the existing manuscript, on sheep skin, is said to be at least 2,000 years old, the original is dated in the 13th year of the occupation of Canaan (by the Israelites), 32 centuries ago.

In this ancient revision of the Bible, the Ten Commandments in Exodus are combined with those in Deuteronomy. They contain an extra Commandment naming Mount Garizim—the Holy Mountain of the Samaritans—as the holy place of the Lord, instead of Jerusalem.

Because of this, the Samaritans not only pray toward that mountain, which overlooks Nablus, but also celebrate their Passover there, amid scenes of pastoral simplicity much like they must have been in the time of Moses.

Drive-In Church Resumes Services Sunday Morning

The Community Drive-In Church, sponsored by the Old Dutch Church of Kingston, will hold its first services of the spring season at 8:45 a. m. Sunday.

The drive-in services, which were initiated by the church some five or six years ago, will continue through October.

The Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool, minister of the Old Dutch Church, said the service is designed for informality and has been popular with those who wish to attend an early service on Sunday and for shut-ins who find it difficult to get to sanctuary services.

There will also be a sanctuary service at the church, Main and Wall Streets at 11 a. m.

Order of the service for Palm Sunday will be:

The prelude, The Palms, Faure; the call to worship; a hymn, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name; Holy Scripture, Mark 15:1-15; pastoral prayer; offertory anthem, Jerusalem, Parker; sermon, The People's Choice; hymn, Hosanna, Loud Hosanna, and benediction.

Ellenville Firm Has Low Bid for Paltz Job

A low bid of $15,700 was submitted by Economy Electric Company, Ellenville, for electrical work at State University College of Education, New Paltz, opened this week by State Department of Public Works. Six bids were received.

Low bids totaling $670,485.00 on 15 projects for construction, repairs and alterations to state-owned facilities were opened at Albany. A total of 126 bids were submitted.

The New Paltz work includes electric service connections in a dormitory for 200 at Building 20,

$1,000 Memorial Gifts Assigned To HeartResearch

Memorial contributions totaling $1,000, given to Ulster County Heart Fund this year, has been forwarded as a special grant for research in the cardiovascular field being conducted at the Albany Medical Center by the Dr. Allan Stranahan research team.

Dr. Ralph D. Alley, who recently addressed a meeting sponsored by the Ulster County Heart Chapter, is a member of this group.

The announcement of the research grant was made today by Heart Chapter Chairman, Franklin H. Hazard. Hazard explained that this brings to $6,000 the grants made in the past five years by the Ulster County Heart Chapter to this team of scientists. "Research projects in which this group is engaged," Hazard said, "have been approved by a board of trustees of the Joint Fund for Medical Research, a board formed by the New York Heart Assembly and the State Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health, to consider grants for research in the cardio-pulmonary and vascular fields." These are funds for research that are over and above the portion of funds allotted for research and forwarded for this purpose through the American Heart Association and the National Tuberculosis Association.

In his address at the Heart Chapter meeting held in Kingston recently, Dr. Ralph D. Alley reported on progress made in cardiac research and in surgical treatment. He stated that Ulster County funds had played a large part in the program made in recent years in these particular studies. He also stated funds from private sources, which give the scientist freedom to move in direction indicated by his findings, are "three times the value" of funds from other sources which do not offer this opportunity.

A recent American Heart release indicates the American Heart Assembly's aid to research in 1961-62 will top 10 million dollars. Hazard emphasized, "Research is one part of the Heart Association's triangle—the other sides being Education and Community Service—both of which bring the findings of the scientists to the people."

Brave Youngsters Help in Rabies Vaccine Testing

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Mention doctors, shots or medicine to most youngsters, and they head for the tallest tree.

Not so for three sets of Phoenix area brothers who were guinea pigs in a 50-state research project which may produce a "Before bite" human rabies vaccine.

For several weeks the boys visited the Maricopa County Health Department, where doctors gave them blood tests and serum shots.

Scientists now are studying blood samples taken from the nervous youngsters to determine what antibiotic effect the serum had, if any.

To those who would term the project inhuman to little boys, it should be noted they all volunteered with their parents' approval.

Participating in the Phoenix phase of the project were Arthur Allen, 14, brothers Craig, 12, Gary 15, Tommy, 11, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Allen of Litchfield Park; Edward, 12, and Tim Peterson, 11, sons of Mrs. Ruth Mann; and Kurt, 11, and Mike Redfern, 13, sons of Mrs. Carol Redfern, all of Phoenix.

Govt. Bonds Improving Under Kennedy Policies

Q—"I'm getting discouraged with my long-term government bonds. I seem to have picked the wrong section of the bond market. What are the chances of improvement?" R. S.

A—"Since you wrote to me, there has been a gradual strengthening in long-term government bonds which should prove heartening to a great many conservative investors like yourself. The primary reason for this is a change of attitude in government circles."

The Kennedy administration is embarking on a policy of trying to hold up short-term interest rates and, at the same time, bringing down rates on long-term obligations. To do this, the Federal Reserve has initiated a market operations. As a result, long-term bond prices have been moving up for several weeks.

The 3 1/2's of 1998 were quoted at 91.2 bid to yield 3.95 per cent in late January. Recently, these bonds were quoted at 94.40 bid to yield 3.78 per cent. The 4 1/4's of 1975-85 were quoted in late January at 102.24 bid to yield 3.97 per cent. Recently, they had advanced to 104.28 bid to yield 3.78 per cent.

In view of recent improvement and the prospect of further gains, I advise you to stay with your long-term bonds.

Q—"I bought Safeway Stores at 39. It is now back to the original price level and I think I should sell. Would General Telephone or American Hospital Supply be better for me?" E. H.

A—"I'm always reluctant to advise sale of strongly situated stocks such as Safeway. This second largest supermarket chain serves the Western U. S. and parts of Canada. Earnings gains have been held down by expansion costs, but the shares are currently acting well. If you have additional funds to invest, I advise you to take a position in either of the two stocks you mention. Hold Safeway for potential appreciation and good income in any case.

40 Persons Hurt In Chicago Blast

CHICAGO (AP) — An explosion of undetermined origin ripped through a crowded North Side tavern Friday night, injuring at least 40 persons, five seriously.

The blast tore an 8 by 10-foot hole in the floor of the Hi-Fi Lounge at 943 N. Wells St., and a lesser hole in the ceiling.

Police and fire officials at first reported the smell of explosives at the scene, but a member of the arson and bomb squad said the blast definitely originated in the basement and the cause would remain undetermined until later.

The four hospitals where the injured were taken said most of them suffered cuts and abrasions from flying glass and debris. A number of patrons fell through the gaping hole in the floor while groping their way to the exits in the dark.

Also among the injured were a number of persons loitering in front of the tavern, who were showered with debris as the blast blew out the front of the building. Of the five reported seriously injured, four required immediate surgery and one, a young woman, was reported in danger of losing both legs.

Charles Hill, 26, said she was sitting near the front of the tavern when the explosion "seemed to come from the back and beneath." She suffered cuts on the legs and feet.

Katie Holmes, 22, who was sitting farther back, said "the floor seemed to come up." She was knocked from a bar stool and suffered gashes on the face and legs.

Louis Thompson, 55, the first man to arrive at the scene after the blast, told police "it sounded like two trucks colliding."

Old Geneva Snags

GENEVA (AP)—Western hopes for an early treaty with the Soviets on banning nuclear weapons tests appeared today running into the same old snags that have plagued the talks for 2½ years.

With the resumed conference recessed for the weekend, a revival of the propaganda battle for world opinion appeared shaping up.

The Soviet news agency Tass said today the United States and Britain are trying to give the impression of offering "new sweeping proposals" while the Soviet Union is standing pat.

Final Meeting

A short question and answer period will follow.

Open to Public

The meeting Monday night will be open to the public. Under the by-laws of the Nonpartisan Nominating Committee all meetings are open to the public except the final deliberations in which two candidates will be selected.

The Nonpartisan Nominating Committee was established in January by a cross-section of interested citizens. Its formation was recommended and initiated by the local chapter of the American Association of University Women, following an intensive investigation by a special study group appointed by that organization. Mrs. Benjamin Chipman served as chairman of the study group.

Some 25 organizations in the school district were invited to send delegates to the committee, in order to obtain the most democratic cross-section possible. In addition, a number of members-at-large were also chosen, composed of interested persons who attended the initial meetings of the organization.

Delegates from the organizations, after affiliation with the Nonpartisan Nominating Committee, then ceased to "represent" their organizations. Their actions as members of the committee were their own, without responsibility to the organization which sent them. The "delegation" procedure was simply designed to obtain the best possible cross-section of persons in the community interested in seeking the best qualified candidates for the board of education.

To Select 2 Wednesday The Nonpartisan Nominating Committee will meet Wednesday night at the George Washington School to select two candidates which it will support in the election Tuesday, May 2.

Six persons have appeared before the committee to date and several more are expected Monday night.

The terms of Robert Herzog, president of the board, and Robert O'Reilly, vice president, will expire in May.

The Nonpartisan Committee will obtain the necessary signatures (100) on petitions required to qualify its two candidates, and will support them in campaigning for election.

Only 16 days ago the Soviets announced a dog named Brunette (or Blackie) and other small creatures were thrown into orbit and brought back to earth the same day. This flight was described as being "for the further adjustment of the design of the spacecraft and of the systems on board so as to insure the necessary conditions for the flight of man."

Under Close Scrutiny Western scientists have been closely watching Soviet space announcements since March 14, when Premier Khrushchev predicted the Soviet Union soon would rocket one of its astronauts into orbit.

"The time is not far off," he said, "when the first Soviet spaceship with a man on board will soar into space." He added no details.

At least three Russians are known to be undergoing intensive astronaut training but the Soviet Union has been saying very little lately about its plans to boost a man into space.

Assembly

ceive $7,500 a year in salary and $14,000 each for personal expenses. Under the pay-rise, they would receive $10,000 salary in 1963 and $19,000 each in expense allowance immediately.

Pay increases proposed for the other leaders: Assembly majority leader, Senate and Assembly minority leaders, a raise of $7,500, to $28,000 annually.

Chairmen of the Senate Finance Committee and Assembly Ways and Means Committee a raise of $7,500, to $28,000 annually.

Lieutenant governor an increase of $5,500, to $33,500 annually.

In addition to pay, all of these leaders are supplied limousines and chauffeurs.

Two Cars Damaged Two vehicles were damaged late Friday night as a result of a collision which occurred at Stephan and Farrelly Streets, according to police.

Involved in the crash were cars operated by Ronald William Sprague, 25, of 233 Broadway, Port Ewen, and Robert H. Smith, 25, of 5, Box 187, Kingston. Police said the Sprague car was heavily damaged.

Local School Board Makes Pay Raises, Appointments

At a special meeting of the Central School Board held recently, Frederick Dippel, supervising principal, was authorized to offer appointments to the following teachers, effective September 1961.

Miss Judith Ann Mosher, language; Miss Catherine Zimmermann, first grade; Mrs. Margot Goldstein, second grade; Miss Caroline Nydegger, special class; Mrs. Francis Hasbrouck, kindergarten.

Tenures were awarded to Mrs. Brita Reed, art; Mrs. Jacqueline VanLeuvan, elementary; Miss Laura Stanley, typing; Joseph Helloskill, industrial arts; Mrs. Betty Taylor, elementary; Raymond Buckley, high school principal.

Four dollars an hour for adult education teachers was approved and $800 for the director. An extra duty classification of student council advisor will receive an annual salary of $200.

It was also agreed to increase the salary schedule for teachers. Starting pay will be $4700, an increase of $200 over last year's schedule. Teachers with 30 approved semester hours beyond a bachelor's degree are paid $300 above the basic salary. Teachers with 30 hours beyond a masters degree are paid $600 above the basic salary.

The board also approved the salaries of Frederick Dippel, supervising principal. Raymond Buckley, high school principal, Joseph VanAuker, elementary supervisor, and Thomas Benana, guidance director, making a total of $36,400 for the year 1961-62, an increase of $2,800 over this year.

After the special meeting a regular open meeting was conducted at which the treasurer's report and clerk's report were read.

Supervisor George Majestic of Gardiner made the following statement, "Two school building proposals made by this board have been voted down by the citizens of this district. In my opinion this does not mean the doom of the school building program. It is essential that the voters be convinced of three things: the definite need for more classroom space; that the building be on the most desirable site; that the cost will be within the means of the taxpayers."

To accomplish these objectives I would strongly recommend that a citizens committee be changed from 12 noon to 12:15 p.m.

London Is

the next move on the British proposal.

Says Chances Good A British Foreign Office spokesman said the Soviets promised to give "serious and urgent" consideration to Britain's proposals.

Leaving Britain, Foreign Secretary Lord Home was optimistic and saw a good chance that Moscow will accept London's proposals.

"I think the Russians are really concerned to see a genuinely neutral Laos," Lord Home said.

Another approach will be put before the SEATO ministers, who open their meeting Monday.

Philippine Foreign Secretary Feliberto Serrano said he will propose that the United Nations guarantee Laos' neutrality.

The foreign affairs chiefs of the SEATO nations will try to devise a peaceful solution to the problem of an impending Communist take-over in Laos. But the leaders have shown signs of solidarity in a determination to carry out their SEATO commitment to defend Laos by arms if everything else fails.

Sees Job for SEATO

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, due in Bangkok tonight, said on a Honolulu stopover that "the responsibility of the SEATO nations must be realized in the event no peaceable settlement can be worked out."

The SEATO talks bring together Rusk, Lord Home, Serrano and Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies of Australia, Prime Minister Keith Holyoake of New Zealand, French Foreign Minister Couveur, Marville, Foreign Minister Manzur Qadir of Pakistan, and Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman of Thailand.

The Communists are holding a Warsaw, Pact conference next Tuesday, with Laos sure to get major attention. Moscow diplomatic sources said the meeting may be attended by Soviet Premier Khrushchev himself, along with other Communist heads of government.

Fighting Reports Meager

Reports on the fighting in Laos between pro-Western government forces and Communist-supplied Pathet Lao rebels were meager. Premier Prince Boun Oum's government has charged that North Vietnamese Communist troops invaded from across the border and launched the pro-Communist Pathet Lao offensive in the kingdom's narrow waist.

The rebel offensive that began anew March 7 cut the major highway between the administrative capital at Vientiane and the royal capital at Luang Prabang in the north. Advance elements are said to have moved to within 15 or 20 miles of Vientiane. The offensive first began 80 miles north of the city.

The Laotian government offered no conclusive evidence of its charge Friday that six North Vietnamese battalions were now in the fighting. It has made similar charges before without proof.

Fifteen U.S. helicopters reached Thailand on their way to join five others being flown by the Laotians to transport troops and bring back wounded from the front.

Secrecy Shrouds Movements

Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, royal Laotian army commander, insists his men control the situation, despite demoralizing combat reverses in the past few weeks.

The Laotians, peaceful by nature, celebrated army day in Vientiane with parades and merry-making Friday.

Secrecy shrouds everything concerning warship and troop movements at U.S. bases in the Far East. The aircraft carrier Bennington's departure from the Philippines was in a series of moves by U.S. 7th Fleet vessels.

Skin Owner Is Warned About His Discrimination Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall has warned George Preston Marshall, owner of the all-white Washington Redskins professional football team, that he will be expected to hire Negro players if the team is to play in the new District Stadium.

Marshall countered immediately that he would be glad to discuss the matter any time.

Udall, in a letter to Marshall Friday said the football owner is in for "a moral argument with the President and the administration" — and even possible criminal prosecution — if his team practices discrimination.

Udall, himself a professional football fan, wrote Marshall after issuing a new National Park Service rule to prohibit discrimination by teams using the $20-million stadium. It is being built by

C47 Is Reported Missing in Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department announced today that a U.S. C47 airplane assigned to the American air attack in Laos has been missing for two days with eight men aboard. Whether the aircraft was flying over Communist controlled territory in the war-stricken country, a State Department spokesman was unable to say.

Nor could he say whether the Communists might have fired on the aircraft but said, "I assume they are Americans."

The announcement by press officer Ben Thirkield said: "A C47 plane assigned to the office of the air attaché of the American Embassy at Vientiane is missing with eight men aboard."

The plane left Vientiane Thursday morning. Its final destination was Saigon. Nothing has been heard from it since."

Spring Is Here---As Anyone Can Plainly See

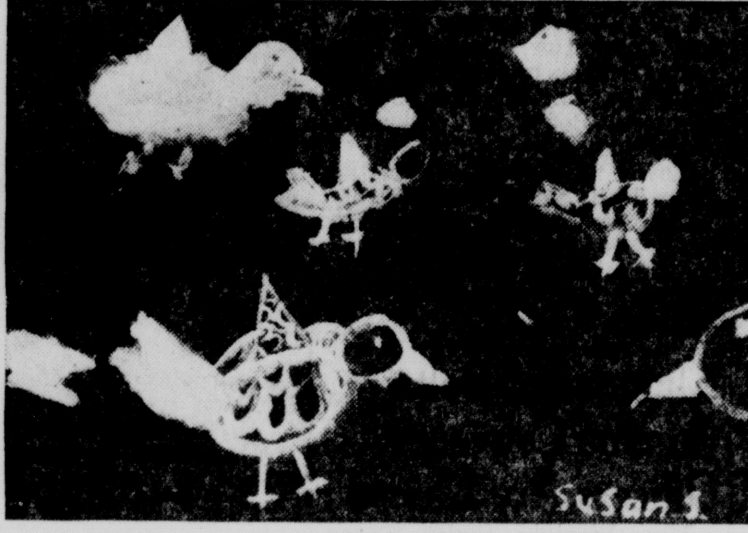

March means National Children's Art Month. March also means spring. Maybe not the roll-on-the-ground, going-without-a-jacket kind of spring. But the warm days are coming and summer vacation doesn't seem so far away.

Elementary school children in two Ohio communities observed Art Month and spring by putting onto drawing paper their thoughts about March. The project was under the direction of Mr. Edward Stizza, of Pepper Pike Elementary School, Orange District, and Miss Eileen Majercik, of St. Joseph's School, Strongsville.

The pictures on this page are just a few of the many fine drawings which interpret that wonderful thing called spring.

Big, old frog croaking on a log is by Ricky Roman, 7th grade, Pepper Pike.

Birds, birds, birds. What could be more typical of spring? It's by Susan Sotka, 2nd grade, Pepper Pike.

To Carol Ann Goldbach, 4th grade, St. Joseph School, spring means a big butterfly hovering over a flower that has poked its way through the earth.

Isn't it just like a boy to think of skin diving? James Martin, 5th grade, St. Joseph, must be itching to plunge into the water after a long, cold winter.

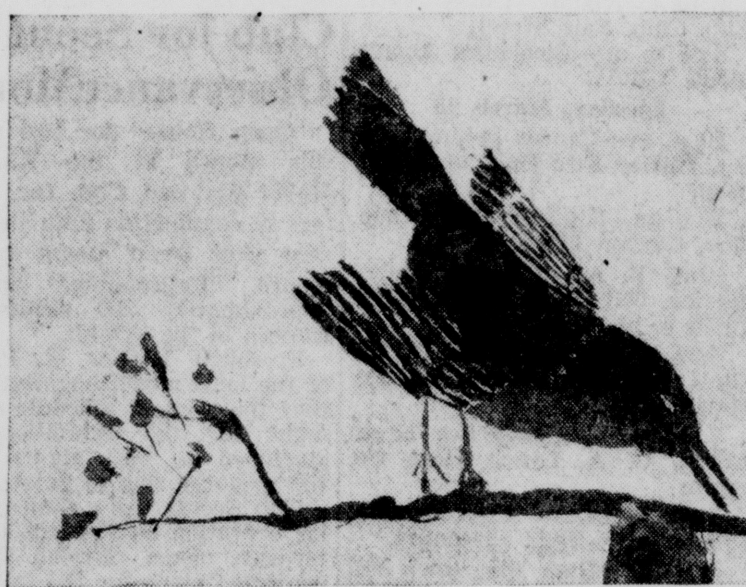

Elizabeth Stein, 7th grade, Pepper Pike, thinks of flowers when she thinks of spring.

Horses gamboling in the green fields are the work of George Bodovetz, 7th grade, Pepper Pike.

March means rain and umbrellas to Christine Sloan, 4th grade, St. Joseph.

A bird tending its nest is the work of Glen Vodicka, 5th grade, Pepper Pike.

When Carolyn Radley thinks of spring she sees an outstretched arm holding flowers—just that. She's in the 4th at St. Joseph.

Did You Ever Wonder Where Those Easter Customs All Started?

We all know why Christians celebrate Easter—a time to mark the anniversary of the day on which Jesus Christ rose from the grave. But did you ever wonder where the extra trimmings came from: the colored eggs, the Easter Bunny, the pretty clothes we wear?

The name Easter itself, has an interesting story behind it. Many years ago people used to worship gods and goddesses. One of these was the goddess of spring, Ostara or Eostre, by name. Because she stood for the resurrection or rebirth of Mother Nature after the barren emptiness of winter, the Christian day of joy became aptly known as Easter.

Whoever heard of Easter without the gaily colored eggs which have become such a part of the day? But such was not always the case. For as long as the world has existed the egg has been the symbol of birth or beginning in much the same way that spring heralds the rebirth or renewal of life.

However the custom of coloring eggs goes back to the ancient Egyptians and Persians, who practiced this ancient art during their spring festival. Thus the egg, synonymous with rebirth or resurrection, became associated with the celebration of the holy day.

The hare, or rabbit, also became a part of Easter in much the same way. Since ancient times the rabbit has been a symbol for fertility or the beginning of life. So we can see easily how the Easter Bunny became an essential part of Easter as well.

Last but not least is the present day custom of buying "Easter outfits" to wear on that special day. This stems from an ancient superstition that it was unlucky not to wear some new article of clothing or adornment on festival day.

And so, this year, when we dip our eggs in the gaily-colored dyes and eat chocolate bunnies in our joy of the day, we might stop and remember that if it were not for old customs we wouldn't have half the fun.

Happy Easter!

Doll Clothes

By Frances Gorman Risser
Joanna's mother buys her dolls

Such lovely little clothes Of silk and satin, and small shoes

Trimmed with the sweetest bows,

Then she says: "Do be careful, dear,

Those doll clothes cost a lot—

Don't tear them up, and watch that you

Don't soil them—silk will spot!"

That's why Joanna likes to come

And spend the day with me;

My mother has a lot of scraps She gives to us, you see.

We cut and fit and sew and make

Doll clothes all by ourselves,

The kind of clothes that are for use,

Not keeping safe on shelves!

Good Weather Is With Us: Just Look Around You

About this time of year, in spite of the weather predictions, you're probably beginning to wonder if summer will ever come again. To discover that winter is really gone, go out-of-doors and look for these signs of spring:

Twisted horns of skunk cabbage appearing in swampy grounds, buds of the pussy willow beginning to show, tree buds growing fatter by the day, an occasional butterfly flying lazily by, and crocuses blooming brightly in the garden.

One of the more familiar signs of spring is the plaintive, high-pitched, "peep-peep-peep-peep" of the spring peepers, who are the first of the frog family to awaken from winter hibernation.

As you listen to his song, you ever wonder what a peeper looks like? He's a little brown fellow, hardly as long as the end joint of a little finger, and when he lifts his throat swells out like a white bubble.

He's very timid. To see him, you must approach the pond or swamp where he lives, tiptoeing quiet, for if he hears the slightest sound he vanishes from sight under the water. Even if you have, not frightened him away, he's mighty hard to see because his coloring blends in with the dead leaves at the water's edge and hides him from view.

But be patient. Keep quiet. Before long there will be a "peep," then another, another, and still another. The peepers chorus starts up again—a sure sign of spring.

April Fool's Day

No one knows just how or why April Fool's Day started. Some trace it to a feast in India, others to a Roman festival, and still others to a celebration of coming of spring. But we all know that the custom of playing jokes on April 1 is a very old one. In France and England it was common more than 300 years ago. From England the colonists brought it to America.

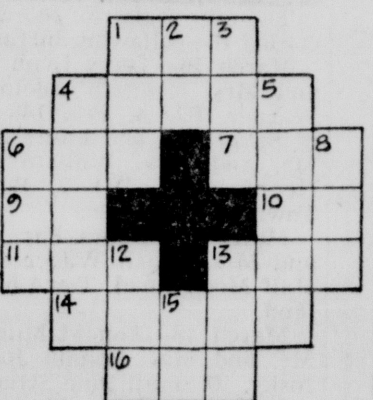

In this country it is chiefly a day for children. They pin the words "April Fool" on some friend's clothes, nail something to the ground and watch people try to pick it up, make chocolate-covered cotton balls that look like candy, or play some other harmless prank.

Always the prankster shouts "April Fool!"

Your Friends Will Agree It's Fun to Be Fooled

On April Fool's Day, when it's fun to be fooled, try these foolish stunts on your family and friends:

Start the day by telling the family at breakfast that you can drop sugar into a cup of coffee without wetting the sugar. When they challenge your statement say, "April Fool" and drop some sugar into a cup of dry coffee.

Show a book to a victim and tell him that you can kiss a book inside and outside without opening it. When he challenges you, say, "April Fool" and step out doors with the book, kiss it, come back inside and kiss it again.

Ask an unsuspecting victim to point to his head and give you the abbreviation of mountain. When he answers, "em-tee," all you have to say is, "April Fool."

Tell a victim that you can imprison him in a circle and that try as hard as he will he won't be able to get out. When he says you can't do this, reply, "April Fool" and draw a circle around his middle with a piece of chalk.

Inform a victim that you are going to give him a test to see how fast he can carry out commands. First, have him grasp his left ear with his right hand and his nose with his left hand. Then, have him grasp his right ear with his left hand and hold his nose with his right hand.

Have him change back to the first position, followed by the second position. Keep repeating the commands, giving each one a little faster than the one before. After six or seven of the switches, bring the stunt to a halt by saying, "April Fool. You'd better stop this foolishness before you get a shiny nose."

Try these foolish stunts on your family and friends and they'll agree that it's fun to be fooled.

Boston Symphony Orch. to Extend Season; Berkshire Festival Will Last Eight Weeks

The Boston Symphony Orchestra, which already has the longest season of any orchestra in the United States, will extend its activities, beginning with the 1961-62 season, to a 50-week season in which 221 concerts will be given.

At present the Orchestra gives 63 Symphony Hall (Boston) concerts in the winter season; these concerts, divided into four series, are sold out by season subscription. Next season the number of Symphony Hall concerts will be increased to 70 by the addition of a new series of six Monday evening concerts plus an increase from nine to ten programs in the present Tuesday evening series.

The Orchestra's Berkshire Festival at Tanglewood (Lenox, Mass.) which is to be extended from six to seven weeks this summer (1961) will be increased to an eight week summer season in 1962.

In addition to the new or expanded series, the Orchestra will continue its ten rehearsals opened to the public as a benefit for the Orchestra's Pension Fund, the annual Pension Fund Concert in Symphony Hall, the Boston Pops Pension Fund Concert in Symphony Hall, the Boston Pops at Tanglewood, and the regular series of concerts given each year in Cambridge (6), Providence (5), Brooklyn (5), and Manhattan (10) plus approximately 20 tour concerts.

The orchestra also presents the Boston Pops with Arthur Fiedler each spring in Symphony Hall (nine weeks) and the free Esplanade concerts with Mr. Fiedler (three weeks) which are given at the Hatch Memorial Shell on the banks of the Charles River in Boston.

In his announcement of the expanded season, Henry B. Cabot, president of the Orchestra's Trustees, stated, "The Trustees believe the Orchestra exists as a public institution, supported by the public with a responsibility to perform before the public as often as possible without impairing its musical standards."

"At the same time the Trustees feel a responsibility for the welfare of the Orchestra members," Mr. Cabot added. "By steady employment through most of the year, the ladies and gentlemen who make up the Boston Symphony Orchestra can concentrate on musical matters without the problems common to most symphony orchestra players of finding extra and sometimes non-musical means to support themselves and their families."

Phyllis W. Barlow, county fund, recommended by Stanley E. Munro, U. S. Treasury Department.

Start building this fund early. At the beginning this is primarily the parents' responsibility. Later, parents should encourage children to set aside a portion of their own earnings toward their college fund.

U. S. Savings Stamps, available at most Post Offices, offer an ideal method for this type of saving. Most college students can count on earning $200 to $300 for a summer's work. Some students are able to carry a part-time job along with their studies after their freshman year.

Explore all possibilities for scholarship, grants, loans and combinations of these. Plan ahead for the cost of the entire college course, not just for one semester.

U. S. Savings Bonds offer an excellent means for building a college fund. The bonds are available at your local bank; can be purchased in convenient units of $25, $50 or $100 or over; increase in value each year. And, one parent can cash them at any bank whenever he needs the money.

200 Visit Rail Club for Scout Observance Month

"Open House" for two nights this month at the Kingston Model Railroad Club Inc. quarters in conjunction with the current Cub Scout theme of the month, "Railroading," brought approximately 200 scouts and leaders to the exhibit.

President Walter H. Phillips of the local model engineers said that the original schedule of one night for the exhibition was stretched to two nights when the response was so great.

Cub Scouts were shown regular operation on the club's quarter-inch model railroad system, projected plans for the fall show were viewed, and a question and answer period was held.

The club leader reported that Cub Scouts were present from "all over Ulster County," and indicated that the project was apparently a success from the standpoint of both the scouts and leaders and the local model engineers.

Asks Election Check

CORNING, N. Y. (AP)—John Kellogg finished third in a three-way race for two village trustee posts in nearby Riverside, and has asked the state attorney general to require his opponents to show that their election was legal and proper.

Kellogg asked Atty. Gen. Louis Lefkowitz Friday to start a quo warranto proceeding, a seldom-used action that would obligate the winners to prove by what right they hold office.

The winning candidates in Tuesday's election were Claude Klock, who polled 183 votes, and Delbert Bishop, who had 172. Kellogg polled 133.

Girl, Prisoner of Parents Half of Life, Happy, Free

WATSONVILLE, Calif. (AP)—Joyce Elaine Kensinger, 13, basked in the sunshine and freedom of the California hills today unconcerned about school and others from "all over the world" to adopt her.

Food, new clean clothes, and her recently acquired foster parents are the prime interest of the youngster who says she spent half her life locked in a bare bedroom of her parents' shabby home in Santa Cruz.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Kensinger, are in jail awaiting trial on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor by providing an improper home. Her four brothers and sisters have been scattered among other foster homes.

Four plaintiffs were awarded total verdicts of $12,400 in Supreme Court Friday afternoon in an action for negligence arising out of a "chain accident" at St. James Street and Clinton Avenue Aug. 29, 1958. The verdict was returned at 4 p. m. after the case had been submitted to the jury by Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth.

John Alecca, owner of one of the vehicles, was awarded $317.06 for medical bills and his wife, Helen Alecca, received an award of $7,100 for injuries. They were represented by Roy L. Featherstone, George DeCicco, owner of a second car, was awarded $853.61 and his wife, Marjorie DeCicco, was awarded $4,100 for injuries. The DeCiccos were represented by Guido Napoletano. The defendant, David Zimmer, formerly of Kingston, was represented by John E. Morris with Louis Schecter of New York as trial counsel.

The accident occurred when one of the cars stopped for a traffic light at St. James Street and Clinton Avenue, the second car stopped in the rear and the Zimmer car failed to stop.

Motions by defense counsel to set aside the verdict were denied by Justice Elsworth and 30 days grant to appeal.

Clark Will Offer Separate Measure On Parochial Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., says he will offer a loan program for parochial and other private schools in a separate bill rather than try to include it in an administration bill providing grants for public schools.

Clark's statement Friday represented a swing over to the administration viewpoint on the subject. President Kennedy has said he feels federal loans to private schools would be unconstitutional. He has suggested that the matter should be considered in a separate bill rather than endangering the administration plan to provide nearly $3 billion in grants for public elementary and high schools.

Originally Clark had said he might propose his $350-million loan program for private schools as an amendment to the administration measure.

This is favored by the Roman Catholic hierarchy. Its spokesmen have said they feel they must oppose any aid to education bill that does not include a loan program for parochial schools.

But Clark, a Unitarian, said Friday, "The national crisis in education grows more serious every day. I am more anxious than ever to see an adequate federal aid to public schools program enacted, and that remains my primary objective."

"That objective will be advanced if we can separate the church-state controversy from the President's program by handling it in a separate measure."

"When the Kennedy program reaches the floor, I intend to vote against any amendments which, in my judgment at that time would jeopardize enactment of the bill into law, either on the hill or at the White House."

Clark said he had planned to introduce his bill Friday but delayed it for further study.

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sir Alec Guinness has returned to Hollywood after a six-year absence to play, of all things, a Japanese gentleman.

He is portraying a Japanese tycoon in "A Majority of One," which Mervyn Leroy is filming for Warner Brothers. Rosalind Russell plays the Bronx housewife (Rosalind Russell?) with whom Sir Alec has an East-West romance.

I found the versatile Britisher in his dressing room at the studio, where he is having daily confabs on his makeup.

For Simple Makeup
"I want to make it as simple as possible," he explained. "The character is remote enough; if I have to be conscious of a lot of makeup, he will get even more remote."

With typical Guinness thoroughness, he spent two weeks in Japan before coming here for the role. "I thought it foolish to attempt a characterization when I knew nothing at all about the locale."

So he traveled to several parts of Japan to observe and absorb. He and his wife didn't stay at a Japanese inn—"I was afraid without an interpreter I might order raw fish with chocolate sauce for breakfast or something like that."

But he did eat the native food each night and liked it. "I refused to go to only one place," he said. "That was where they chopped off the heads of live turtles and drained the blood for you to drink."

Favors Hollywood

Guinness's last Hollywood film was "The Swan," with Grace Kelly. "I had misgivings about my own part in the movie making," he said. "But everyone here was very kind to me. I think Hollywood is the best place to make films."

"Some of the British press were disappointed because I wouldn't knock Hollywood. A lot of the reporters there are nice chaps and I enjoy their company. But I'm afraid some aren't satisfied unless they are stirring up some

Eighth Annual Kingston Cage Tourney to Start Tuesday

Eight Top Clubs Set to Compete At the Auditorium

Eight top notch clubs have entered the eighth annual Kingston Basketball tourney and action will get underway on Tuesday night.

The Poughkeepsie Collegians will face the popular Ray's Tackle Shop of Kingston in the 7 p. m. opener and then Reub's Five of Kingston will face the Orange County Community College team of Middletown.

On Thursday, the defending champions Pine Plains Bombardiers will oppose Rhinebeck in the 8 o'clock contest after the McLean Well Drillers of Germantown open the program against Morgan Fuel of Poughkeepsie.

Tournament director Andy Murphy said the semi-final and final dates have not been set as yet. However, he said that the eight clubs in the tourney are all top rated attractions and a wide open tournament is anticipated.

Two of the teams—Ray's Tackle and Pine Plains—are still in the running for the Hudson Valley tournament in Poughkeepsie. The Collegians feature a few veterans and some youngsters from the Poughkeepsie area.

Middletown will have almost the entire college varsity, which was voted one of the top junior college clubs in the country. Reub's Five features a blend of top high school and college cagers. The McLean Well Drillers have always had a representative team here in other tourneys and Morgan Fuel is the same club which won the Poughkeepsie City League title. Rhinebeck competed in the Kingston circuit and finished fourth.

Aqueduct Goes Into 2nd Week Next Monday

Aqueduct goes into the second week of its 63-day Spring meeting on Monday and two stakes events highlight the program. The $25,000 added Bay Shore, a mile for three-year-olds, will be contested on Wednesday and on Saturday the feature is the $25,000 added Westchester at a mile for four-year-olds and upward.

The Bay Shore is the second of the local stepping stones for the three-year-olds heading towards the classic races for the age division, with the first big one the $75,000 added Wood Memorial at Aqueduct on April 22. The Wood is traditionally the final Eastern test for those hoping to go to the Kentucky Derby.

The three-year-olds had their first local stakes trial in the Swift on opening day of the season and eight of the ten that were in that race are eligible for the Bay Shore, including the two who battled it out in a photo finish—H. O. H. Frelinghuysen's Merry Ruler, the winner, and Mrs. S. J. Lefrak's Stan the Man, beaten a neck. The added distance of the Bay Shore, might come fast at the end, but the pacesetter Merry Ruler held on well. The latter has speed, but never has been more than seven furlongs while Stan the Man won at a mile and a sixteenth at Santa Anita this winter.

Still in the hunt, however, is Leonard P. Sasso's Globemaster. This one, an $80,000 yearling purchase, was third as the favorite in the Swift but, breaking from the outside post, never was able to get inside and went wide all the way.

Lakers Gain Win On Hawks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Los Angeles Coach Fred Schaus believes his Lakers now are on their way to the National Basketball Association's Western Division Title. They beat St. Louis 118-112 Friday night and took a 2-1 lead in the playoff series.

"Two of the next three games are going to be on our floor and that should help us," said Schaus. The Hawks and Lakers resume the best-of-seven games series to-night in the Los Angeles State College gymnasium, where Friday night's contest was played. St. Louis Coach Paul Seymour, who ducked a swing from an 18-17 lead on the way to the dressing room, said Clyde Lovelette's failure to get going hurt the Hawks' chances.

Lovelette was held to eight points and his failure to get going early share of rebounds was reflected in the 81-36 advantage in this department by the Lakers. St. Louis did put a crimp in Elgin Baylor's scoring, holding him to 25 points, about 15 below his norm. But Tom Hawkins, Hot Rod Hundley and Jerry West took up the slack with 20, 19 and 23 points, respectively.

Bob Pettit was the game's high scorer with 26. The Lakers outscored the Hawks through the first three periods, but St. Louis rallied gamely in the fourth and outscored Los Angeles 34-29.

SENATE APPROVES Bill for Stadium
 ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The return of National League baseball to New York City was a step nearer today after Senate approval of a bill that would allow the city to build a 55,000-seat stadium for the major league team. Gov. Rockefeller was expected to sign the measure, passed unanimously and without debate Friday night by the Senate. New York City plans to obtain $13 million from the sale of 30-year bonds to pay for the arena. The stadium would be leased to the Metropolitan Baseball Club, which holds a National League franchise.

Settled Early
 Both games were settled in the first half. Ohio State rolled up a 45-28 advantage the first 20 minutes with Lucas pacing the attack with 14 points. Cincinnati cracked Utah's zone defense and led 35-20 at the intermission. Paul Houge, 6-9 junior, scored 21 points in the Bearcats' attack that had four players finishing in double figures. Ohio State and Cincinnati have met six times before, but not since 1922. Ohio State won four of the games, Cincinnati two.

Bowling Tourney Starts in State
 SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—The annual New York State Men's Bowling Tournament begins today with more than 3,500 teams seeking the championships won last year by teams from Buffalo and Syracuse.

The tournament, which will run to the end of May, attracted 3,525 teams, 15,079 entries in the singles, 7,467 in the doubles and 13,186 in the all-events. Pfeiffer Sports Goods of Buffalo won the team championship without handicap last year. Carling's Beer of Syracuse was the winner of the handicap title. The bowlers will roll weekend at two Syracuse centers until May 1, when competition turns to a nightly basis until the end. Other 1960 champions: Without handicap—Dick Haw, Blaisdell, individual; Howard Nagel, Buffalo, all-events; Lowell Warters and Ed Hughes, Elmira, doubles. With handicap—Joe Cortelli, Buffalo, and Milton Jones, Seneca Falls, tied for individual; Bob Pary, Buffalo, all-events; Nicholas Pallastro and Phil Annutto, Liverpool, doubles.

Bob Feller, former hurler for the Cleveland Indians, issued 1,764 bases on balls during his pitching career, a record.

The Travers Stakes at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., first run in 1864, is the oldest stakes race in the United States.

Mantle on a Hitting Streak, Raises Spring Mark to .526

Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees has a .526 exhibition batting average, 13 hits in his last 17 trips to the plate—and a reliable crystal ball.

Mantle, who stroked a pair of doubles and two singles in a 13-6 rout of the Chicago White Sox Friday, said at the time he signed his contract: "I don't remember when I've felt better at this stage. I ought to have my best year."

The American League's highest salaried player at $75,000 is proving an accurate prophet. Besides his batting mark, Mantle has hit five homers and driven in 13 runs. He has compiled a startling .765 batting average in the last four games.

The last time the 29-year-old switch-hitting outfielder had an outstanding exhibition record was in 1956, the year he went on to hit a league-leading .353 during the regular season and topped the AL in homers (52) and RBI (130). The Boston Red Sox ran their pre-season record to 9-3—the best among American League clubs—with an 8-4 triumph over Cleveland, and Pittsburgh remained on top of the National League standings by beating Kansas City 8-5 for a 12-3 log.

In other games, Baltimore made Minnesota its seventh straight victim with a 5-1 night game win. St. Louis edged Milwaukee 4-3, Philadelphia defeated Cincinnati 7-3, the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped Detroit 3-2 in 10 innings, Washington defeated the Dodgers' B team 5-4 in 11 innings, San Francisco outlasted the Chicago Cubs 13-12 and Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League whipped the Los Angeles Angels 9-6.

Mantle, who knocked in one run with his four hits, was ably supported by Hector Lopez, who drove in three runs, and Bobby Richardson, Deron Johnson and Roger Maris, who each accounted for two. Juan Pizarro started for the White Sox and gave up five runs in two innings.

The Red Sox scored four runs in the seventh inning to beat the Indians with Frank Malzone pacing the offensive with a homer and triple. Boston's Bill Monbouquette allowed only one run and six hits in a six-inning workout.

Larsen Is Beaten
 Kansas City's Don Larsen walked two men in the 11th, then served a homer to Smokey Burgess of the Pirates victory. Burgess also drove in two runs with a second inning double, while Rocky Nelson contributed a homer to the Pittsburgh attack.

Gene Stephens hit two doubles to pace Baltimore's seven-hit attack against the Twins.

The Cards' Julian Javier singled home two runs in the eighth, stole second, then went to third on a bad throw and scored the clincher against the Braves on a grounder. The Phils scored in the first on John Callison's fifth homer and added four in the fourth to whip the Reds.

Homers Wins It
 Tom Davis belted a homer in the top of the 11th—the first run off the Tigers' Joe Grzenda this spring—in the Dodgers' A squad triumph. The Senators beat the Dodger B team on Marty Keough's run-producing single in the 11th, with Ed Hobaugh pitching 5 2-3 innings of one-hit relief. Orlando Cepeda's three-run homer capped a six-run eighth inning outburst that beat the Cubs, who got round trippers from Don Zimmer and Billy Williams. Ned Garver gave up seven runs in the first two innings as Vancouver shot out to a commanding lead over the Angels.

Tribe Has Good Front Line, Needs Bench, Relief Hurlers

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Cleveland's Indians this year could be the team they hoped to be in 1960 before injuries hexed the club.

Gone is General Manager Frank Lane, the trader who exchanged managers with Detroit late in the season, and brought the veteran Jimmy Dykes in to pilot the club.

Gone also is outfielder Harvey Kuenn, the final Indian traded by Lane, who exchanged him for left-handed pitcher Johnny Antonelli and outfielder Willie Kirkland of the San Francisco Giants. Appraising his club, Dykes declared, "We have a good front line but we need bench strength and relief pitchers."

Cleveland could be the club to challenge the New York Yankees for the American League pennant, but there can be no repetition of the injuries that shelved shortstop Woody Held, second baseman Johnny Temple and pitcher Gary Bell, among others.

Held and Temple report themselves in top shape this spring and Bell has thrown some good innings in exhibition outings.

Can Name Lineup
 The man with his fingers crossed in Dykes. He can virtually name his opening day batting order, but there's a big drop between his first and second lines. Temple leads off followed by the dependable Tito Francona manning left field. Jimmy Piersall patrols center with Kirkland in right and batting clean-up.

Held plays shortstop with Vic Power at first base and John Romano expected to catch 135 games this campaign. Bubba Phillips at third base will bat eighth.

Temple was expected to form the double play combination with Held, but admits, "We're virtually strangers. I was hurt half the season and he was hurt the other half."

Right-hander Jim Perry won 18 games as the ace of the pitching staff last season and aims for 20 this campaign. Antonelli says he's happy to be away from San Francisco, and he could come back to win 15 or 20.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant figures this to be his make or break season after a 9-8 mark a year ago and Barry Latman hopes to avoid his usual slow season start.

Scoring Improves In ABC Tourney

DETROIT (AP)—The pins are crashing now at last in the American Bowling Congress tournament after three weeks of low scoring in the 38th annual show.

Scoring erupted in a one-day fury Friday that would be difficult to match in the tournament's half century history.

Five of the six minor events leaders were toppled.

Bob Brayman of Detroit took first place in the Classic division all-events with a hefty 1963 and first place in the doubles, with Duke Marquart, on a 1318 total. Brayman, a member of last year's team champion A.A. Aspinall of Birmingham, Mich., had 646 as he bowled for the Helin Tackle team Thursday night and 637 in the singles and 680 in the doubles.

King's Meadow Win Feature at Yonkers

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—King's Meadow, driven by Howard Beisinger, scored an easy wire to wire victory over Vieddy in the Yonkers Raceway feature pace Friday night. Time for the mile was 2:07 4-5. The 5-year-old son of Meadow Pace, owned by Adrien and Gerard Miron of Quebec, returned $5.50. Flying Time, the 7-5 favorite of the crowd of 24,387, finished third.

The storm was increasing in violence and some of the deck fittings had already been swept over-board, when the captain decided to send up a signal of distress. But hardly had a rocket burst over the ship when a solemn-faced passenger stepped on to the bridge.

Captain, he said, I'd be the last man on earth to cast a damper

After taking his friend through some hair-raising loops and turns, the daring pilot remarked:

Come in and have it charged, was the inviting sign in front of a place of business in a Jersey town. A stranger, being somewhat low in funds, walked in briskly.

Problems in Buddhist Kingdom

No Quick, Easy Victory For Anti-Communist Force

EDITORS NOTE: AP correspondent Roy Essoyan knows the people and the terrain of strife-torn Laos well. He was in Vientiane before and during the battle for that capital when the pro-Western government took over last December. Here he tells what confronts American troops if they are sent to the Buddhist kingdom.

By ROY ESSOYAN

HONG KONG (AP) — If American troops go into Laos, they will bog down there for years to come. It's that kind of country.

Most military experts agree there is no quick or easy victory for anti-Communist forces in that rugged, landlocked kingdom.

Treacherous swamps and jungle in the south and soaring peaks and precipitous mountain trails in the north provide ideal terrain for hit-and-run guerrilla warfare such as the pro-Communist rebels have been waging there for the last 10 years.

Would Have to Stay On American military men believe U.S. Marines or American troops specially trained in jungle warfare could drive the main pro-Communist forces back, or maybe even out of the country.

But U.S. forces would have to garrison Laos from then of if they wanted to keep it outside the Communist orbit.

They would have to shoulder the burden of fighting before and after victory, in the opinion of most responsible Western observers.

They would have to fight on Laotian terms, packing weapons and rations on their backs because the terrain in most places is too rugged to haul anything bigger.

There are few roads in Laos, and most of these turn to mud under the driving monsoon rains just ahead.

Retreating Communist forces would leave isolated guerrilla bands and mountain-dwelling tribesmen in the hills to harass the American rear.

Impossible to Flush

The royal capital of Luang Prabang, the northern Communist base of Sam Neua and most villages and strongpoints in the northern Laos are cuffed by mountains. They're in the mercy of any guerrilla force that holds the commanding hillsides. The hillsides are practically impossible to flush.

Additionally, Laos' 600-mile border with Red China and Communist North Viet Nam in the north would pose a constant threat of Communist invasion or, at the very least, raids across the border.

Most European observers believe the United States could not rely on the easy-going fun-loving Laotian people to fight any determined anti-Communist war for them. It is not, they say, a matter of military equipment but of basic human attitudes.

Laotians Not Warlike Race

Laotians, from farmers to Cabinet ministers to generals, have never been a warlike race. They have had 10 years of war and though most of them treat it as a sport rather than a life-and-death struggle, they want no more of it.

At the height of the current crisis this week the Laotians showed they are more interested in fun and games than war. The rebel-threatened administrative capital of Vientiane was a fairland of fireworks, colored lights, parades, and elaborate neon-lit floats happily poking fun at weapons of war.

This was the Laotian way of celebrating army day.

The pro-Communist Pathet Lao are a different breed, brainwashed, trained and directed by dedicated Communist cadres. Their rank and file would probably just as soon trade their rifles in for plowshares, but they're too closely supervised by Communists for that.

All of which disregards the over-all political considerations involved. For if American troops move into Laos en masse they could well trigger a counterinvasion by Chinese Communist and Communist Vietnamese troops.

And if that happens, both sides would have a hard time preventing a civil war from spilling over into a general Southeast Asia war.

MEDINA, N. Y. (AP)—Charles D. Lake, 29, of Lockport, was drowned Friday night when his automobile went out of control at the intersection of Routes 63 and 104, about three miles north of here, rolled down an embankment and landed in a pond.

Howard Bauer, who is co-owner of the West Park Service center, with Karl Schwarz confirmed the report that gasoline prices at that station had dropped seven cents a gallon.

Meanwhile, prices of regular gasoline at four stations on Route 9W north of Highland continued to range from 29.9 to 24.9 cents a gallon.

Sponsored by Bush
Sen. E. Ogden Bush, R-Delaware County, who sponsored the legislation, urged that it be put to the electorate for a vote. "Will the 58 senators or all the people make this decision?" he asked.

Sen. Robert C. McEwen, R-Ogdensburg, said private resort operators resented competition from the state. The Hunter Mountain expansion, he said, was needed to accommodate the increasing number of skiers.

Bush sent his proposal back to committee after the Senate vote, which subsequently was withdrawn.

Discuss Facets of Gunsmoke Expanding to One-Hour Show

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Why is "Gunsmoke" expanding to an hour?

Folks in and out of the trade have been asking that ever since CBS announced that the veteran Western would be doubled in length next season. At a half-hour, it still is America's favorite TV show. So why tamper with success?

Offer Explanations

Some explanation comes from Norman MacDonnell, longtime producer of the show.

"The decision was made in the higher echelons, but I think I know what the reasoning was. Most hit TV shows wear out about the fifth year—even 'I Love Lucy' did. 'Gunsmoke' was going into its seventh year, so the next one might have been expected to be the last," MacDonnell said.

"It was apparently believed that going to an hour will prolong 'Gunsmoke's' life. Plus which the trend in all TV programming is toward an hour length."

The show stars a famed foursome, all individuals in their own right—Jim Arness, Dennis Weaver, Amanda Blake and Milburn Stone. How did they take to the change?

Arness Enthusiastic

"Jim was enthusiastic from the start, and when he's enthusiastic, he goes all-out," said MacDonnell. "The first reaction from Dennis, Amanda and Milburn was cautious; they naturally thought of preserving what we have. But now they've become enthusiastic, too."

It will mean more work for them. The half-hour schedule called for a day's rehearsal and three of shooting. Next season they'll rehearse a day and shoot six.

Besides the change to an hour, "Gunsmoke" will be facing another change; it will be competing with itself. Reruns on the half-hour shows will be shown on CBS Tuesday nights at 7:30. But that doesn't worry MacDonnell.

"I think we'll be getting two entirely different audiences," he said. "Saturday night from 10 to 11 is pretty late for a lot of youngsters. Many of them will be able to watch 'Gunsmoke' for the first time on Tuesday nights."

Business Week in Review

NEW YORK (AP)—The unemployment problem has deepened in the face of general opinion that business is climbing out of the recession.

The government reported this week that unemployment increased by 320,000 in February to a total of 5,705,000, and that two-thirds of the 150 major industrial areas have substantial unemployment this month.

Areas Affected at Peak

The number of areas in this predicament is the highest ever.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg added 25 areas to the list in which 6 per cent of the work force is idle. They included Chicago, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, San Francisco-Oakland, Seattle, Syracuse, New Orleans, Miami and Dayton.

The Labor Department slightly parted the dark curtain with the report that employers in nine out of 10 of the industrial areas expect some improvement in employment between now and May.

To help alleviate the distress from unemployment, President Kennedy signed legislation which will provide additional payments up to 13 weeks for jobless workers who have used up their benefits.

The payments, which may aggregate as much as $1 billion, will go to 3 million persons.

This was the first specific anti-recession measure enacted by the current Congress.

In another action aimed at countering the recession, the House Banking Committee approved a loan and grant program of nearly $400 million to help provide job opportunities in chronically depressed areas.

Arrival Something Else

As for business conditions, the consensus was that the economy is moving toward recovery. But the big question was: When will it be reached?

The President told his news conference there is evidence of some improvement. He added it is too early to tell whether the progress will be sufficient to reduce unemployment and launch a sustained economic growth.

The Chase National Bank of New York City cited a pickup in retail sales, a good rate of investment in new plant and equipment, higher government expenditures for goods and services, strong export markets and improving farm income. These factors, it said, indicate the economy is at or near the bottoming out phase of the current business cycle, and could produce an upturn by midyear.

St. Louis Girl Is U. S. Junior Miss

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Pretty Mary Fran Luecke, 18, of St. Louis, Mo., today wears the crown of America's Junior Miss.

The honor went Friday night to the brown-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Luecke Jr.

Miss Luecke, a high school senior like the other 50 contestants, broke into tears when her name was announced. She quickly regained her composure and accepted a sceptre, a long pink robe and small glittering crown from last year's winner, Maureen Sullivan of West Haven, Conn.

First runnerup in the pageant is Linda Lenora Sawyer of Louisville, Ky. Miss Colorado, June Gray of Denver, was named second runnerup.

Misses Robin Kessler of New Haven, Conn., and Judy Skipper of Jackson, Ala., were named third and fourth runnersup respectively.

James A. Farley, former postmaster general and Democratic party leader, presented scholarships to the five. He was introduced by Gov. John Patterson.

Miss Luecke received a $6,500 scholarship to the college of her choice. She said she wants to attend the University of California at Los Angeles and study drama. In addition she will receive some clothes and make personal appearances in every state in behalf of the pageant.

AINTREE, England (AP) — Nicolaus Silver won the grand National Steeplechase today, with Merryman II, last year's winner second in the world's toughest steeplechase. O'Malley Point was third.

Merryman II had taken the lead after the start of the second tour in the four-mile, 856-yard course, but Nicolaus Silver caught him at the 29th jump, then led over the 30th and final barrier, and drew away in the stretch.

Nicolaus Silver, ridden by H. Deasley, started at odds of 28-1 in the field of 35 starters. Canobie Lee, one of the six most fancied horses, was a late scratch when he became lame.

Merryman II started at 8-1, and O'Malley Point was 100-6.

Avezzano was almost destroyed by a major quake in 1915. Today's tremor caused little or no damage. There were no reported casualties.
